Greek lottery group Intralot has completed the purchase of Peru's biggest private lottery company, Tektron SA, for $50 million. Tektron's main shareholder is Frecuencia Latina-Channel 2, one of Peru's top TV networks. Tektron operates four lotteries, La Tinka, La Cabala, Juega 3 and Rapitinka. Intralot began operating in Peru in July. The buy of Tektron, announced Monday, makes Intralot Peru's biggest gaming company. In October, Intralot signed a six-year service agreement to run Polla Chilena de Beneficencia, Chile's state lottery organization. Intralot's revenue for the first three quarters of 2003 was 254.1 million ($310.7 million), up 11.9% from the same period a year ago. With operations in Europe, Latin America and North America, Intralot is now the world's third-largest provider of lottery game systems. --<PAGE>N/A</PAGE>
